and the Public Service in Jamaica for processing. Please note that if the application is non-compliant, the applicant is advised in writing of the necessary actions to be taken.

Processing time generally takes 3 to 4 months after the documents are received by the Ministry of Finance and the Public Service.

When the application is approved, the Scholarship and Assistance Unit sends written notification to the Embassy. Upon approval, the Embassy will produce the Letter of No Objection and send it to the Department of State within 5 business days. Thereafter, the U.S. State Department will continue with their processing for the visa waiver.

For information and procedures on how to apply for the Waiver, visit the US Department of State website at www.travel.state.gov. The applicant will be given a case number, which is to be stated in the request to the Embassy.
